Abstract
Descriptive epsitles in the First Mamlouki Age
(648 -784 A.H.).

‘Ahid Taha Iyal - Salman .
Mu’tah University, 2007

This study aims at identifying the descriptive epsitles in the first Mamlouki age and studying them artistically and subjectively .

The study also aims at revealing the role of these epsitles in describing the first Mamlouki age (648 - 784 A.H).

The study consists of three chapters , the first chapter deals with the epsitles genre in the first Mamlouki age , especially descriptive epsitles and their role in illuminating a better picture of the age .

The second chapter deals with the subjects that the descriptive epsitles tackled , such as epsitles that describe nature aspects of civilization , hunting and invading .

The third chapter focuses on studying the artistic value of descriptive epsitles .

The study was ended by a conclusion and an evaluation of the role that these epsitles played in describing different aspects of life during the first Mamlouki age .
